SUMMARY: SB 133 amends the Pennsylvania Constitution to allow candidates for governor to choose their lieutenant governor as a running mate.

ANALYSIS: SB 133 allows each party's candidate for governor to select their candidate for lieutenant governor no later than 90 days before the general gubernatorial election, subject to the approval of the candidate's political party.

Currently, a lieutenant governor is chosen jointly with the governor by voters for the same term.

FISCAL IMPACT: Constitutional amendments have a fiscal impact of $1.3 to $1.5 million in each consecutive legislative session for the purpose of complying with advertising requirements of Section 1 of Article XI of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.
